THE LIBERALS OF JAPAN.

BY MANIFESTO DECLARE THEIR SUPPORT OF THE CABINET.

Dignified and Patriotic Document—
Recognizes National Responsibility
Increased by the War.

In the Japan Daily Advertiser, Yokohama, of November 25 appears the text of a manifesto of the Liberal party which is here reproduced in full:

Our party has for many years labored to establish constitutional government, to strengthen the basis of a responsible Cabinet, and thereby to maintain the prestige and dignity of the Imperial House, and promote the happiness of the people. Years have now elapsed since the establishment of the Imperial Diet, but the results desired to accrue from that event have not as yet been obtained, and there has been instead a failure in the promotion of certain national works most urgent at the present moment, and non-completion of arrangements to prepare the army and navy for war. The position of affairs abroad has become more threatening than ever. Our country had to go to war with China in consequence of the Korean insurrection. Despite the insufficiency of our financial resources and the incompleteness of our war preparations, we were happily successful, and we are now recognized as a strong Power among the nations of the world. In consequence of this the weight of our international relations has been largely increased, which has exposed this Empire to the dangers arising from foreign interference. It is a matter of urgency that at present the people should be united in one; that we should establish a policy to endure for future centuries, and conduct both home and foreign affairs in accordance with that policy. We ought not to frustrate or imperil the future of the Empire in consequence of party conflicts. In view of these considerations, our party framed its policy in July last, made it public and declared that we were prepared to co-operate with any one who would agree in our views and apply them to the conduct of national affairs in the future, inviting all to join us, no matter whether they were government officials or private persons, so long as they supported our policy. In the belief that the sincerity of our patriotism is established in the minds of the public, we approach those entrusted with the direction of the Government of the Empire, informed them of our position and consulted with them as to co-operation. In consideration of the requirements of the time they expressed sympathy with our views, consented to adopt the popular opinion and showed themselves disposed to adopt a policy that will consummate the beauty of the principle of constitutional government and thus strengthen the foundations of the Empire. We have thus found the present Ministry willing to co-operate in conducting the affairs of state, both home and foreign. Our party has agreed to advance in the same line with the Ministry and to assist it in directing the affairs of the nation for the future, in order to facilitate the progress of the Empire. We have taken the lead in urging on the adoption of the constitutional system of government, and it is our duty to perfect its operations. Our patriotism has been aroused by contemplation of the position of affairs at home and abroad at this moment. We have nothing in view but to act in all things for the good of our country. Each man possesses his own liberty and each party its own policy, and we are not in the least disposed to act in violation of personal liberty or of party policy. If we have now agreed to co-operate with the Ministry on account of our views being in agreement, it is because we entertain great hopes for the future of the nation.

(Seal) LIBERAL PARTY.
November 22, 1895.

Accompanying the manifesto is a prolix declaration endorsing it by Count Itagaki, leader of the Liberal party. The paper from which the manifesto is quoted takes the Count up on his "shaky history" in saying that "the fall of Napoleon was followed by the tyranny of King Charles."

AT HAALELEA LAWN.

Lawn Party of the Ladies of the Methodist Church.

Halelea Lawn presents a pretty appearance this afternoon, adorned as it is with many booths, flags, lanterns and streamers, the occasion being the lawn party of the Ladies' Aid Society. The booths are constructed of Japanese screens with flags overhead to keep the sun off and are quite attractive.

The coffee and sandwich booth is under the charge of Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Bacheller, while Mrs. Waring and Mrs. Higgins have the control of the tables on which fancy goods are displayed for sale. Mrs. M. G. Johnston and Mrs. Donse will dispense ice cream in another booth and the Misses Ripley and Colburn will have charge of the sale of flowers.

At the Japanese booth tea and wafers will be served by Mrs. E. P. Chapin and Miss Adler, and the cups and saucers used donated to those patronizing it. Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Sturdevant are in charge of the candy booth and Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Gallagher have another in which nice lemonade will be sold.

The beautiful afternoon encourages the ladies to expect a large attendance and proportionately large receipts. The proceeds will be devoted to furnishing the parsonage and church needs generally.

UNUSHI DE GANS!

Se Des; Anash'koto Tokio!—Japanese Acrobats Draw Well.

Packed to the doors was the novel-looking building at the corner of Merchant and Richards streets yesterday evening. Tom Evans is offering a rare treat to the amusement lovers of Honolulu, in the shape of something of merit in entertainment. There were nine numbers on the program and every one of them was good. The tree balancing was most encored, its novelty causing much astonishment to the audience, few of whom had ever seen such an act before.

The difficult feat of rolling a huge ball up an incline and over a "teeter" while standing upon the ball without support is well worth the price of admission. In fact, the whole show is good, and the large number of white people present, each one of whom left delighted with the various acts, will advertise Mr. Evans' enterprise and bring him a full house nightly. Changes in program will be made from time to time.

The Baltimore mare expected here about next Thursday, having left Yokohama on the 30th ult.

Many people were agreeably surprised at the excellence of the bareback riding in the circus last night.

The place to get pictures or to have pictures framed is unquestionably at King Bros. They devote their entire attention to the art business and are prepared at all times to give absolute satisfaction. Their art rooms are always open for inspection.

THE PAVILION PACKED.

WIRTH'S CIRCUS GIVEN AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

Some Exhibitions of Rare Equestrianism—Superb Bare Back Riding—Wire Walking by Little Girl.

Before the opening hour for the initial performance of Wirth's Australian Circus last night, the sign of "standing room only" had to be displayed. Late applicants for seats in the chair section had to go without them, and in the other section numbers reclined on the ground close to the ring.

Although there were but six riders in the ground entree act, it proved to be a graceful exhibition. The horses went through the quadrille like humans, and two of them lay down at command. Two gymnasts gave a thrilling trapeze performance, equal to what might be seen anywhere.

Lahl Sing gave a splendid exhibition of bareback riding, turning somersaults while his horse was galloping, also making clean leaps to his feet on the steed's back from the ground. Two little girls gave a pretty performance in club-swinging, and with a third, later, made a great hit in song and dance—"Little Alabama Coon."

Miss Muriel Wirth, one of the dainty damsels mentioned, apparently not more than six years old, performed some wonderful feats on a tight wire. She never made the slightest slip in going through a hoop, picking up a handkerchief, etc. W. Burns gave feats of prodigious strength in chin and shoulder balancing. His balancing of an upright ladder while a Japanese youngster wormed in and out through the rungs was loudly applauded.

Miss Nellie Lyndhurst gave a dashing act in riding three horses, and later a performance in picking up a handkerchief, leaning backward while her horse was galloping, which has probably never been surpassed. P. H. Montgomery introduced a trained pony that evoked great enthusiasm by his apparently rational exercises. He and Miss Ida Vernon did some posing on horseback which was highly artistic, the strength displayed by the man in raising his fair companion being remarkable. Acrobatics by the full company were very creditable, one of the little Misses being as good as any of 'em.

The comic elements of the circus are well up to the mark. Although the clown's jokes were in many cases well advanced beyond the copyright stage, they were delivered in an original and distinct style, so that they never failed to make the canvas shake with the waves of mirth. Many other features of the show not mentioned in this report were highly pleasurable. On the whole Wirth's circus is a clean and meritorious exhibition, and in more than the conventional sense is devoid of anything that can offend the most fastidious. For a few hours surcease from carping care take in the circus.

Cornwell's horse, Billy C., will take part in the races at Kapiolani park on New Year's day. Charles David and his assistants have got the track in excellent shape and it will be still further improved by constant rolling. Entries for the races will close on the 15th, and there should be a good string of them. The track will be reserved for bicyclists on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

INCREASED ACTIVITY NOTED.

In All Departments of the Y. M. C. A. in November.

The various reports presented to the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association for the month of November show increased activity in all the manifold departments carried on by the association.

The treasurer's report shows the total receipts for November from all sources to have been $1094.15 and the expenditures 1065.42. Balance on hand $28.73.

The average attendance at the gymnasium in the young men's class was 13; business men, 8; junior class, 20; boys, 31; working boys, 12. There was a total of 33 classes held and an attendance of 665.

The report of the Devotional committee shows that four Sunday evening services were held at the hall and three at Oahu jail. The average attendance at the former was 147 and at the latter 85. Sixty-three meetings were held by Mr. Yatman, attended by a total of 8920 people.

Fifteen new members joined the Association during the month and positions were obtained for five young men out of employment.

The Library Committee reported that 59 books had been in circulation during the month.

The evening classes are reported as flourishing, as are all the other departments.

THE WILLIS RECEPTION

In Honor of Consul-General and Mrs. Mills.

Between two and three hundred of Honolulu's society people attended the reception given by Minister and Mrs. Willis to Consul-General Mills and his bride Mrs. Willis was assisted in receiving the guests by Miss Kate Field and fourteen young ladies who are prominent in society circles. The reception rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and plants, and light refreshments were served during the afternoon. The toilets of the ladies were most charming and Mrs. Willis's reputation as a hostess is an assurance that the reception was a success in every respect.

The Time.

Tomorrow's issue of this weekly will be a great improvement on many previous issues. Jack de Ripper has returned to his old stamping ground with some very good local rhymes. Oxymer has an illustrated poem and the tales of the Soda Water Club are retold by one of the members. The monthly Hawaiian is dusted a little and the N. G. H. is mentioned to the extent of a half page. Social items of interest have the usual space, and a page is devoted to an illustrated poem commemorative of the raising of the new flag on the Pacific Tennis Club's grounds.

Clarence M. Walton of Pahala, Kau, was admitted to membership in the society of The Sons of the American Revolution today. Mr. Walton's patriotic ancestor was Edmund Munroe, a captain in Colonel Bigelow's regiment at the battles of Bennington and Saratoga, and was killed in active service in 1778.

W. W. and H. Dimond have transferred their interest in the Waterhouse estate at Pearl City peninsula to Henry Waterhouse, who now becomes sole owner of the property.

Arthur Harris will be tried tomorrow on the charge of wilfully disturbing public worship.

AT THE KILOHANA ROOMS.

FEATURES OF MUSICAL GIVEN LAST EVENING.

A Fashionable and Select Audience Present and Who Composed It—The Affair a Success.

Every seat in the neat little hall which is the present headquarters of the Kilohana Art League was occupied last evening on the occasion of the first musicale given by the society this season. The stage had been tastefully decorated by the Messrs. Hart, Nolte and others and presented an attractive and artistic appearance.

In the first selection of the program Dr. Day was unavoidably absent but the skill of Mr. A. H. Isenberg on the violin and Professor Berg-r on the piano was fully shown in the concerted number in which he was to have taken part, and loud applause followed their efforts. Miss Axtell's vocal solo, "The Wanderer," was sung in her usual excellent style and as an encore she gave a charming little ballad, which was by many considered the gem of the evening.

Miss McGrew's skill on that most difficult of all instruments—the violin—is so well known that it is sufficient to say that her rendition of the solo "Reverie" was up to her usual high standard. She was accompanied on the piano by Professor Herold, and declined an encore.

The piano solos of Miss Carrie Castle and Miss Greene were well rendered and the program throughout was most excellent. It is given below:

1. Concerted number.....Selected Dr. Day, A. H. Isenberg and Prof. Berg-r.
2. Vocal duet.....Two Tuscan Folk Songs Miss McGrew and Miss Richards.
3. Piano solo—
(a) "Happy Wanderer".....Jesse
(b) "Taranella".....A. D. Bissell
Miss Castle.
4. Vocal solo—"The Wanderer".....Schubert Miss Axtell.
5. Violin solo—"Reverie".....C. Dancla Miss McGrew.
6. Vocal solo—"Since First I Met Thee".....Lubenstein Miss Richards.
7. Piano solo—Selected.....Chaminade Miss M. C. Greene.
8. Vocal trio.....Selected Miss McGrew, Miss Richards and Miss Axtell.

Prominent among the audience were President and Mrs. Dole, Miss Kate Field, Dr. and Mrs. Myers, Dr. and Mrs. Hyde, Prof. Richards, Mrs. Paul Neumann, H. Focke, Prof. Herold, Mrs. C. W. Day, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Miss Schaefer, Miss Grau, Miss Robertson, Prof. Scott, C. Bolte, Prof. Alexander, Miss Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Tucker, Prof. and Mrs. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, Dr. C. B. Cooper, Dr. Murray, D. H. Hitchcock, Dr. Rodgers, Mrs. Dr. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Major Potter, Mr. and Mrs. V. n Holt, Mr. Reynolds, Mr. and Miss Nolte.

For the Lepers.

Wray Taylor has decided to give his annual entertainment for the lepers' merry Christmas at Kaunakapili church on Saturday evening, December 14th. Admission will be 50 cents, and among those who will take part are Miss Kate Field, Miss Alice Rice, the pianist; Miss Ingersoll, of Alameda, a violinist, who is on her way to the islands, Armstrong Smith's handbell ringers, the Pacific Lawn Tennis Glee Club and a number of other local artists of note.

Another big engagement of Seattle B or on tap at that popular resort, the Criterion.
